ACCELERATE YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS & SAVE TIME AND TUITION

A partnership between Federal Way Public Schools and City University of Seattle allows Leadership Academy completers to challenge coursework to shorten the time to completion. As a Leadership Academy completer, you are eligible to fast-track your degree in either the Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Leadership or the Doctorate of Education (Ed.D.) in Leadership. These programs meet Washington requirements for the Residency Administrator Certificate, and completion of either program is designed to lead to principal and/or program administrator certification. A non-certification track is also available.

Completers of the Leadership Academy are eligible to challenge six credits.* Additionally, all FWPS employees are eligible for a special 15% tuition reduction on most tuition-based courses.

PREREQUISITES:

1. Bachelor's or master's degree from an accredited university
2. Valid Washington State teaching or ESA certificate, if administrator certificate desired
3. Minimum three years of successful instructional experience
4. Application for a specific program of interest
5. Interview

FWPS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY COMPLETERS MAY CHALLENGE:

- EEA 521 Educational Leadership (3 credits)
- EEA 533 Supervision of Instruction (3 credits)

Leadership Academy graduates are also eligible to transfer elective credits on applicable subject matter upon review by the registrar.

A total of 12 credits can be challenged or transferred.
